The Massage Therapy Industry is Growing...

Expanding Job Market

Jobs for massage therapists throughout Canada are expected to increase 8.4 % through the year 2028.¹

Bryan College can give you the skills, confidence, and preparation for the RMT exam to qualify for a job in the massage therapy industry.

Seize the Opportunity in a Growing Industry

Careers as a Registered Massage Therapist (RMT) are expected to grow due to increasing awareness and emphasis on preventive medicine and also because massage therapists provide a service that promotes the renewal and healing of body and mind, along with general health and wellness.

Attractive Employment Opportunities

A Massage Therapy diploma from Bryan College can put you on the path to varied job settings² such as:

- Health & Wellness Spas and Resorts
- Medical Settings
- Fitness Clubs
- Multidisciplinary Clinics
- Sports Teams & Athletic Departments

Engaging Clinical Experience

In an onsite Student Clinic, overseen by experienced Registered Massage Therapists, students will have the opportunity to learn and practice treating members of the general population while running the day-to-day operations of a clinic. During organized outreach and placement opportunities, offsite students will gain unique experiences treating specific and unique populations.

Gain Extensive Knowledge and Skills to Succeed

At Bryan College, our Massage Therapy curriculum is reviewed annually to ensure the most up-to-date career-relevant skills are included, such as:

- General Swedish Massage
- Advanced Massage techniques
- Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathophysiology
- Client and Orthopedic Assessments
- Advanced Treatment Plans for a multitude of conditions
- Remedial Exercise for Client Home-Care Plans
- Preparation to obtain a Certificate of Registration from the College of Massage Therapy Ontario to become a Registered Massage Therapist (RMT)
- Real-world experience at Bryan College's student massage clinic, which is open to the public
- Additional experience gained through the Student Outreach program, which includes visits to different settings outside the student massage clinic, allowing students the unique opportunity to work with a variety of client populations
